

IF IT'S Worth Reading
You'll Find it in The Herald

NO 45

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Highest of all in Laxative Power—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Baking Powder

MADE IN U.S.A.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

... pushed off in the other row which near the back and reentered Society of the other, the other looked, and of North Lathropie Phenash of South Lathropie street, who says he had witnessed the driver's death. He replied by his father, ran down to the front of the lake and assisted in removing the victim and his infant into the comfortable home of Mrs. L. Shingler 4871 South Corcoran street. The baby was laid upon a sofa in the parlor, like the father, stone cold, was given food and warmth in the kitchen. Dr.

you is to have the first shot, and will alternately draw and swallow the pill until the poison shows its effects.
Two of the pills were taken as the law had decided, but with out any other result. "This time," said the doctor, speaking of the two pills remaining, "you must both swallow the pill at the same instant."
The advice was pure, and in a few seconds one of the gentlemen lay dead on the grass.

Indiscoverably Revolving.
The other gentleman, who was not so fortunate, was also dead on the grass.

was hastily summoned, but gravely shook his head as he looked at the young man in the lounge. "No use," he simply muttered while the father turned away and buried his face in his hands.

Ford of the drowning was immediately brought to police headquarters and search was at once begun for the

[illegible]

William Toby was first in the path of a storm. The building was destroyed and Toby was probably fatally injured. The other members of his family escaped.

to the air, carried 100 yards and dashed to the earth. The building was washed into splinters and Postmaster T. Mullin and his wife, who lived in the office and store, was lifted bodily and dashed to the earth. The building was washed into splinters and Postmaster T. Mullin and his wife, who lived in the office and store, was lifted bodily and dashed to the earth.

Shaker Digestive Cordial. The medicine is made of the best medicinal herbs and plants of which Shaker Digestive Cordial is composed, help to digest the food in your stomach; help to strengthen your stomach. Whether your stomach is strong, care will be taken so. Shaker Digestive Cordial is for to wrecked and many smaller buildings were destroyed, trees uprooted and crops ruined.

Rumors are current here that the sea storm did frightful damage northward.

In Ram's Clutches.
[Christian Work.]
When Rev. Geo. B. Stuart was once

down the aisle one night a poor Irish woman with an intelligent face, crying out in her peculiar way, showing the deep anguish of a mother's heart, "Mr. Stinart! Mr. Stinart! the school has been closed."

At Wewoka, I. T., the same cyclone destroyed Gov. Brown's store, a saw mill and four other buildings. Several persons were hurt, but none ars reported five people were killed. In Lincoln county Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin have been found in the ruins of their home, and Harrison Johns will die of his injuries. hands that went up, showing how many mothers were having the same sad experience. Some of them were hands in kid gloves, some were white tender hands, while some were bar-

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey acts as a balm to the lungs, cutting the pain, allaying the inflammation, healing and strengthening. It is the only medicine that can do you good—cannot do you harm.

A Duel With Pills.
[Continued from Page 1]

from the system by the faithful and persistent use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful remedy proves successful when all other treatment has failed to relieve the suffering.

the arrangement of details to their ponds, and until they faced each other they did not know by what method they were to settle their differences. One of the secondas was

On occasion four black pellets, all identical in size and shape. "In one of these," he said, "I have placed a sufficient quantity of prussic acid to take the almost instantaneous death of 20 years' standing."

any one who swallows it. We will ride by the loss of a coin which of

tie of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer whom may send their F. O. and Express address
 We advise any one wishing a cure to address
 Prof. W. E. FERRIS, F. D., 4 Cedar St., New York

FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL.

Best IS HOMER IN THE WORLD.
Electric Elevator.
FRED CAMPBELL, Manager.

SAVE YOUR EYES

To persons who desire to avail themselves of our

'utt's Liver Pills

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

grasped off in the other scow which near the bank and rescued Spivey from the water. The scow was after, Little Johnnie Phennah of South Lafayette street, who says he witnessed the drowning, accompanied by his father, ran down to the lake and assisted in rescuing the unfortunate boy. He is in charge of the South Corcoran street. The baby laid upon a sofa in the parlor,

The St. Petersburg (Edmonton) Telegram gives the following account of the fugitives who were secured from the fugitives who arrived at Elsiehmadin. They declare that no Armenians are left in the Yezidi district, and that the Sultan's will, had mercifully bated the fate of the men, kidnapped the pretenses of the Yezidi, and the Yezidi children into his pit intended for storing the core and buried them alive in order to prevent the Yezidi from arising in revolt.

Oklahoma Tornado.
GUTHRIE, OKLA., Oct. 29.—A tornado swept over a stretch of country about twenty miles west of here at 7:30

several miles long and probably yards wide. The farm house of William Toby was first in the path of the storm. The building was destroyed and Toby was probably fatally injured. The other members of his family escaped.

office and some well-lifted bodily to the air, carried 100 yards and dashed to the earth. The building was washed into splinters and Postmaster T. Mullins and his wife, who lived in the building, were killed. The bodies were found this morning. They were clasped in each other's arms. Two wagons were driven through Mr. Mullins' skull, but there was not a scratch on the body of his wife. The Mullins family were a fine, noble, and brave family. The father house of Abner Jones was wrecked and many smaller buildings were destroyed.

In Ram's Clutches.
[Christian Work.]
When Rev. Geo. R. Stuart was once preaching in Kautsueky, there came down the alala one night a poor Irish able. There was a tremendous out in her peculiar way, showing the deep anguish of a mother's heart. "Mr. Starn! Mr. Starn! the saloons have got my boy!" The preacher heaved a sigh, and the large congregation was moved to tears. "I have seen many women in this great audience hold up their hands with this woman!" You should have seen the hands that went up, showing how many mothers were having the same trouble. Some of the women were in kid gloves, some were white leather hands, while some were bare.

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey acts as a balm to the lungs, cutting the mucus, allaying the inflammation, cooling and strengthening. It is the best to do you good—cannot do you harm. Thousands have been benefited.

A Duel With Pills.
[Gentleman's Magazine.]

An extraordinary duel, which at the time created an immense sensation, was one in which the decision was arrived at, not by swords or pistols, but means of a deadly poison. The duellist, who, it is hardly necessary to

The only permanent cure for chronic constipation is to thoroughly expel the poison from the system by the faithful and persistent use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful remedy proves successful when all other treatment has failed to relieve the sufferer.

the arrangement of details to their minds, and until they feel each other they did not know by what method they were to settle their differences. One of the seconds was a doctor, and he had made up for the occasion four black pellets, all constituted in size and shape. "In one of these," he said, "I have placed a sufficient quantity of poison, and it is your duty to eat of it."

say one who swears it. We will side by the tons of a coin which of

Dr. J. C. Feltz's
large, bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P. O. and Express address.
We will send any one wishing a cure to address
Rev. W. E. Feltz, P. O. 4 Cedar St., New York

Feltz's Pills
cure All
Liver Ills

A CLEAR' HEAD;
 Good digestion; sound sleep; a fine appetite and a ripe old age, are some of the results of the use of Tutt's Liver Pills. A single box will convince you of their

Wonderful effects and virtue.

A Known Fact.

An absolute cure for sick headache, dyspepsia, malaria, sour stomach, dizziness, constipation, bilious fever, piles, torpid liver

SAVE YOUR EYES

To persons who desire to avail themselves of the

'utt's Liver Pills

